My Lords and Gentlemen,

Nothing could have given me greater Satisfaction, at this Time, than the Unanimity, and Dispatch, with which you have gone through the Business of this Session. Though no particular Point of extraordinary Moment hath offered itself to your Consideration, yet you have shewn the most attentive Regard to every Branch of the Publick Service. As to Foreign Affairs, I shall say nothing at present, except, That it is my fixed Resolution to do every Thing, in my Power, to maintain the general Tranquillity, and to adhere to such Measures, for that Purpose, as I have hitherto pursued, in Conjunction with the Powers in Alliance with me.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I return you my hearty Thanks for the Supplies, which you have so cheerfully granted, and which are the more acceptable to me, as they have brought no new Burthen upon my good Subjects.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Time draws near, when the present Parliament must determine by Law; and it is my Intention, very speedily, to call a new one. But it would be unjust to This, not to give It a Publick Testimony of my Approbation. The many eminent Proofs, which you have given, of your Duty and Affection to my Person and Government; of your Zeal for this excellent Constitution; and for the Security of the present Establishment; can never be forgotten by me. By your vigorous Assistance, under the Protection of the Divine Providence, I was enabled to put an End to an expensive though necessary War, by an honourable Peace, which you you have greatly contributed to preserve, by readily and uniformly supporting my Measures. You have gone farther; and, whilst the Difficulties arising from the War were scarce over, seized the first Opportunity, to perfect one of the greatest Works of Peace, by concurring in the most proper Means for a gradual Decrease of the National Debt; and, at the same Time, raising the Publick Credit. You have also, by several new Laws, laid a Foundation, to strengthen and advance the Trade and Commerce of my Kingdoms. Such a Series of wise and steady Conduct cannot fail to recommend you to the Good-Will and Esteem of your Fellow Subjects; as well as mine. For my own Part, I securely rely upon the Loyalty, and good Affections, of my People, and have no other Aim, but their lasting Happiness.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said;

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Thursday the 25th Day of April Instant, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the 25th Day of April Instant.

By the Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

D O R S E T.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath signified unto us His Royal Pleasure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Second Day of April next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the Twenty-seventh Day of August next; We do therefore Publish and Declare, that the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is hereby further prorogued to Tuesday the Twenty-seventh Day of August next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 25th Day of March 1754.

By his Grace's Command,

Tbo. Waite.

Lisbon, Feb. 23. The Fleet bound for Goa, on board of which was near 4000 Troops, sailed from hence a few Days ago. The Affair of settling the Boundaries between the Spaniards and Portuguese in the Brasils, continues to meet with great Difficulties, the Inhabitants of Paraguay, a Province in the Possession of the Fathers of the Society of Jesus, having not only obliged the Commissaries appointed by the two Crowns to make the proper Divisions according to the late Treaty, to retire from thence; but have likewise promised those Fathers to defend that Country against such Division; alledging, that their Province is not comprehended in that Treaty.

Naples, March 9. Count Caraffa, Colonel of the Regiment of Macedonia, has obtained the King's Leave to augment the said Regiment with one Battalion, and they are now raising Recruits for that Purpose. A Treaty of Commerce is said to be on the Carpet between this Court and that of Great Britain. They have actually begun to fill the Arsenals and Magazines of this Kingdom. On Saturday last four armed Chebecks sailed from this Port, in order to cruise on the Corsairs of Barbary, who are continually interrupting our Commerce. 'Tis said his most Christian Majesty has, at the Intercession of the Pope, accepted the Mediation of the Disputes that have lately arisen between this Court and the Great Master of Malta.

Rome, March 12. The Government having purchased an English Frigate for 18,000 Scudis in the Port of Leghorn, she is now equipping at Civitta Vecchia, in order to cruise on the Barbary Pyrates, who are extremely troublesome to the Navigation of this State. A Resolution is also taken at Court, for raising a Battalion of Marines, who are to serve on Board the Pope's Gallies, and other armed Vessels, against those Pyrates.

Genoa, March 12. The Great and Little Council have been for some Days past deliberating on the Affairs of Corsica, which continues to give great Uneasiness. General Count Pallavicini, heretofore Governor of Milan, who has been detained here for some Months by Illness, is now much better, and proposes setting out in a short Time for Vienna, where he will be invested with the Ensigns of the Order of the Golden Fleece. We are informed by the Master of a Ship that arrived here a few Days ago from Barcelona, that all the Officers of the Troops in Catalonia, who had obtained Leave to be absent for six Months, are ordered to return to their respective Regiments forthwith. We are likewise informed, that the Men of War that have been lately built at Carthage, and some others in that Port, are equipping with all Speed. Part of this Armament is intended to reinforce the Spanish Garde Coasts in America, in order to prevent clandestine Commerce, and the rest are to cruise in the Mediterranean, to protect the Ships of the Christian Powers from the Insults of the Corsairs of Barbary.

Stockholm,

Stockholm, March 15. The King has raised M. Carlberg, Knight of the Order of the Sword, and Chief Engineer, to the Rank of Major-General; and Baron Bildstein is appointed Captain of a Company in the Regiment of Foot of Pölse. His Majesty is perfectly recovered of his late Indisposition, and has since given Audience to Baron Lieven, who arrived here a few Days ago from Landskron, in order to make a Report of the State and Condition in which he found the Fortifications and Magazines of that Place. We hear that some able Engineers will shortly be sent to Finland, in order to draw a new Plan of that Province for the Use of our Commissaries who are appointed to settle the Limits of that Country with those of Russia. We have an Account, by our last Letters from Carlscroon, of the Death of Admiral Gersten. The King, in order to encourage the manufacturing of Silk, and Stuffs mixed with Silk, in Sweden, has caused an Ordonnance to be published, forbidding the Importation and Selling of all Kinds of Silk Goods manufactured in the East-Indies, till the 1st of January 1755. Orders are sent to Carlscroon, to fit out several Men of War and Frigates, in order to cruize in the Baltic, as soon as that Sea is clear of Ice. The Intention of this is only to exercise the Seamen, in the same Manner as was done last Year. They write from Abo in Finland, that a Fire broke out there the Beginning of last Month, which burnt with great Violence, but by the great Care of the Governor it was extinguished in much less Time than was expected; and only five or six Houses were by this Accident reduced to Ashes.

Finland, March 16. They continue to say, that several Camps will be formed next Summer in the Hereditary Countries, and that some of them will be honoured with the Presence of their Imperial Majesties. The Empress Queen has given the Regiment of Foot commanded by the late Count Scholtenbourg, to Prince Arenberg, Son to the Duke of that Name, on Monday last died here, in the 76th Year of his Age, Count Hartig, actual Privy Counsellor to their Imperial Majesties, and Vice President of the Aulick Council of the Empire. We are informed by Letters received last Post from Hungary, that Count Styrum, General of Horse, and Commandant of Offen, died the 4th of this Month, in that Fortres, of an Apopleck Fit. Baron Pretlack, heretofore Ambassador from this Court to that of Russia, is at length arrived here from Moscow, having been obliged to stop by the Way on Account of his ill State of Health. He is at present confined to his Apartment; but as he is something better than he was at his Arrival, 'tis thought he will, in a few Days, be able to wait on their Imperial Majesties.

Berlin, March 19. The King has appointed M. Lange to be Counsellor of War and Domains for the Department of Pomerania, vacant by the Death of M. Tetzlauffs. His Majesty has given his Consent to the raising a certain Sum of Money, by Way of Lottery, for finishing the Church that is building here by the Roman Catholics. The Prince of Brunswick Bevern, Colonel of a Regiment of Foot in the Service of the United Provinces, arrived here last Saturday Night from Stettin, and this Morning he waited on the King at Potsdam. We have received Advice, that the famous Banker Michael Hyffing, who was secured here some Time ago, at the Request of the Court of Sweden, and conducted from hence to Stralsund, where he was ordered to be confined till the Season permitted his being conveyed to Stockholm, had found Means to make his Escape a second Time, and has not been heard of since.

Amsterdam, March 28. The Directors of our East India Company have given Notice, that they intend to pay, on the 13th of May next, a Dividend of 20 per Cent. to such Persons as are interested in that Company. The Number of Ships the Dutch propose to send this Year to Greenland, on the Whale Fishery, amount to 132. Last Saturday died here, in the Sixty-first Year of his Age, M. Wettstein, Professor of Philosophy: He was Member of the Royal Society in London, and of the Royal Academy of Sciences at Berlin.

Hague, March 28. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland are to assemble on Wednesday the 3d of April next, for which Purpose they have already dispatched the proper Summonses. M. vander Straaten is appointed Counsellor and Inspector of the Accounts of the Domains of her Royal Highness the Princess Governante.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Disorders, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (or has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continued acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Constipation, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammations, Pleurisy, Quinsy, acute Rheumatism, and the Low-kind of Spasms, and Unsteadiness proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and usually prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Disorders.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James E.
